Bringing massive pool of untapped talent to skilled workforce. Workforce development is a program designed to identify, train and place recent college graduates, high school drop-outs, who are either unemployed or underemployed.

The program benefits organization, industry, as well as the local communities and unemployed population.

Closing the skills gap : Creating workforce-development programs that work for everyone.

Our target group includes a wide range of learners, especially those who are from `Bottom of Pyramid` groups and have little or no exposure to skills and training. We also deliver the widest range of employability programmes for under graduates and post graduates that hone their work skills and provide them a combination of domain and life skills.

On the one hand, almost every employer say they cannot find people with the skills they need, even for entry-level jobs. Almost 60 percent complain of lack of preparation, even for entry-level jobs. On the other hand, this "skills gap" represents a massive pool of untapped talent, and it has dire consequences, including economic under-performance, social unrest, and individual.
